

BLUES MEET YOUTH

WYCOMBE Wanderers stage their third friendly against Football League opposition tonight (Tuesday) when they take on the Bournemouth Youth team at Loakes Park.

Bournemouth have been training at Bisham Abbey this week and the match has been arranged as part of their schedule. There are no "star" names in their line-up but one interesting aspect is that K. Bond, son of manager John Bond, is named as substitute.

The side will be: R. Iles, H. Falconer, B. Lawrence, P. Griffiths, I. Cunningham, J. Tombs, M. Nightingale, H. Goddard, P. Warren, J. Scotland, D. Loney. Subs. K. Bond, G. Stide, N. Bridge.

Wanderers have a full strength squad to select from except for Rob Williams, under suspension. Mick Holifield, Peter Spittle and Tony Amos are likely to come into the side, although Keith Searle may well retain the number nine shirt.

Hendon, runaway leaders in the Isthmian League, now need just one more point to ensure the title.
